GENERAL INFORMATION

Membership:
To join NCSPP, please use the attached registration card or visit the NCSPP website: www.ncspp.org.

Disabilities:
NCSPP, CAMFT, and Division 39 are committed to accessibility and non-discrimination in its continuing education activities. If participants have special needs, we will attempt to accommodate them. If you have concerns about handicapped accessibility, please contact Michele McGuinness.

Privacy and Confidentiality:
All participants are asked to be aware of the need for privacy and confidentiality throughout all programs.

NCSPP, CAMFT, and Division 39 are committed to conducting all activities in conformity with the American Psychological Association’s Ethical Principles for Psychologists. Participants are asked to be aware of the need for privacy and confidentiality throughout the program. If program content becomes stressful, participants are encouraged to process their feelings during discussion periods. Please address questions, concerns and any complaints to Michele McGuinness or phone 415-496-9949.

Participants will be informed of the utility/validity of the content/approach discussed (including the basis for the statements about validity/utility), as well as the limitations of the approach and most common (and severe) risks, if any, associated with the program’s content.

Enrollment:
The Intensive Study Groups are designated for mid- to advanced-level clinicians. If you have questions regarding the appropriateness of the study group for you, please call Brenda Bloomfield for further information. Class size in each study group is limited to the first 15 students.

Commercial Support:
There is no commercial support for NCSPP programs nor are there any relationships between the CE Sponsor, presenting organization, presenter, program content, research, grants, or other funding that could reasonably be construed as conflicts of interest. A $25 bank charge plus $15 administrative charge will be issued on all returned checks.

The Northern California Society for Psychoanalytic Psychology (NCSPP) is the local chapter of Division 39, American Psychological Association. NCSPP is committed to the study of psychodynamic psychology and the encouragement of its interests in the professional and general communities. It is a multidisciplinary, nonprofit educational membership organization open to all mental health professionals. For information visit our website at www.ncspp.org.
With a cry of grief, no forgiveness without bloodshed, no acceptance without a passage through acute loss. That is what lies at the root of true harm.

Are depressed or anxious. Some speak slowly, unhappily about their relationship with a partner or their daily work. Some are quiet and can barely use words.

With food and substances, or restrict all nourishment, the body speaks. It is the record through their bodies.

Textures, contemporary artists, and writings to explore the psychological development of trauma, the body, once a refuge, may no longer be safe.

The body is personal and communal. The body is political and cultural. At times, the body that heals, and the body that dies, and the territories in between.
